Norwich needs you

Do you love helping others and being outdoors?

Would you like to make new friends while gaining new skills and enjoying new experiences?

Can you spare a few hours of your time to give something back to your city?

Join the City Hosts!

“City Hosts gives me the flexibility to volunteer around my studies. I’ve improved my self-confidence and made some great friends.”

Since June 2013, local people with a love of Norwich have volunteered as City Hosts to meet, greet and direct visitors. Our volunteer team are from diverse backgrounds, from retirees looking for a hobby to students looking to develop their skills and experience.

City Hosts make a positive impact on people’s time in our City of Stories and provide important support during exciting events and festivals in Norwich. In fact, the scheme is so good, it’s often the national exemplar for other towns and cities.

Our volunteers all have one thing in common: a passion for Norwich’s rich history, culture, heritage and diversity.
