

Textiles

Location

From charity shops if unsold or from local shoe or clothing manufacturers.

Quantity

Unknown

Composition

Charity shop unsold items have an unpredictable range of quality and type of fabric. Post-production materials include velvet, and will be clean and consistent.

Description

There is an active route for unsold items from charity shops that is income generating and leads to further reuse and recycling. Post-production waste will be smaller in volume, but higher quality and clean and with potential to store separately. Currently is likely to be going in general waste.
